

FINANCIAL and other assistance PROGRAMS to HELP you.

If you need help paying your bill, SCE can set up payment arrangements with you. We also offer several ways that income-qualified customers can receive help with their electric bill. The Energy Assistance Fund assists customers once in a 12-month period. CARE provides customers a 20% or more discount off of their monthly electric bill. If the CARE program is not right for your family, you may qualify for a discount with FERA. And with the Energy Management Assistance (EMA) program, you may even qualify for free energy-efficient appliances.

We even have a Friendly Reminder program, created to provide peace of mind, if you or someone you know needs a helpful reminder from time to time to pay their SCE bill, this program will help. It can keep a simple oversight from turning into a costly inconvenience. Visit www.sce.com/friendlyreminder for more information.

Things YOU CAN do to LOWER YOUR energy BILL.

If you're looking to SAVE, SCE is looking to help you.

Turning off lights isn't the only way to reduce your monthly bill. That's why, in addition to our many rebates and incentives, you'll find easy-to-follow tips and tools on how to save money each month.

For those who need a little more help, we offer programs that provide financial and other assistance to help pay their electric bill.

If someone in your home requires certain medical equipment for life support or to treat specific illnesses, you should apply for our Medical Baseline Allocation Program. It provides qualified customers additional kilowatt-hours per day at the lowest baseline rate in effect.
